Tresspass Letter of Authorization

TRESPASS LETTER OF AUTHORIZATION

This document is used to authorize the Grand Rapids Police Department to enter a property to prevent trespassers from entering. It is signed by the property owner or their agent, indicating that they have experienced problems due to trespassers. The letter is divided into sections, including:

- General information about the property and the person signing the letter.
- Details of the activity that requires the letter, such as noise complaints or unruly behavior.
- An statement that if the person refuses to leave, the GRPD will enforce the law.
- The signature of the property owner or agent.

The property owner or agent must include their mailing address if it is different from the property location address. Instructions for faxing the letter and submitting it to the GRPD are also included.
